ARCHITECTURAL STRUCTURE

Titanic Mardan Palace symbolizes four different architectural designs that define İstanbul which is one of the most impressive cities of the world.

DOLMABAHÇE LOBBY

Titanic Mardan Palace Dolmabahçe Lobby offers a typical palace atmosphere. It has a 2800 m² large area consisting of terrace with an incredible view and 21 m² glass ceiling colored with sky silhouette and ornamented with amazing and traditional special motifs selected from palace handicrafts of Ottoman Dynasty.

GALATA BRIDGE

The unique bridge on earth which was requested from Leonardo Da Vinci by Sultan Bayezid II to design on Golden Horn in 240 m length and 24 m height , was representatively built in Titanic Mardan Palace.

KULELİ STRUCTURE

Built in 1845 and served as Kuleli Military High School for many years, the iconic İstanbul structure reflects all its features in Titanic Mardan Palace.

MAIDEN'S TOWER

One of the symbols of İstanbul and built by Athenian General Alcibiades in 408 B.C. to control movements, entrances and exits of Persian ships, Maiden's Tower was built in Titanic Mardan Palace in a 16.000 m² pool that represents the Bosphorus, in original size.
